

Starting in 2026 ALL expense claims will be paid by Interac e-transfer Auto-deposit. If you have not signed up for Auto-deposit, here is the link to the Official Interac website explaining why you should use Auto-deposit and how to sign up at your bank or credit union.

If Auto-deposit is not possible you must telephone the Provincial Treasurer at 250-733-6975 to set up an unique e-transfer security question.

Meeting attendees are reminded to choose the most economical travel option. For example, if your home is more than 500 kilometers from the meeting location flying may be more economical than driving. A workbook is located in the forms section of the BCGREA website to help you determine your maximum eligible claim amount.

Reimbursable airfare is the cost of a non-refundable economy flex class ticket purchased at least three weeks prior to the meeting.

Travel expenses will not be reimbursed beyond the costs that would have been incurred using the most economical travel option.

The most economical travel option assumes reasonable accommodation for disabilities, weather conditions, and/or late-night travel. For example, an extra night's accommodation is reasonable if traveling home on the same day of the meeting means driving or flying late into the night.

When combining a BCGREA meeting with other personal travel, reimbursement will be based on the lesser of the actual costs or an estimate of the minimum acceptable expenses that would have been incurred if the personal travel had not taken place. Travel expenses will not be reimbursed beyond the costs that would have been incurred had personal travel not taken place.
