December social – show of hands that we enjoyed the food and program

The branch is entitled to $10/member/year = $7000, dependent on the branch utilizing the funds for the purposes on BCGREA. The provincial treasurer will transfer money when our account balance is down to zero.

This branch is not interested in charging for meetings/snacks and delivering programming within the budget.

1st VP of BCGREA. There will be a new survey to determine what members want as BCGREA and branch activities. Survey will be via email only, unless requested. 11,000 members, of which only 10% of membership do not have an email address. The cost to mail the survey package out would be about $9 each.

The protocols regarding approval for affiliations to outside organizations is being developed. Pension group cooperation: BCGREA, Teachers pension, and Municipalities are looking at forming a group to address common concerns. Maybe named "Public Sector Pension Group".
